A letter from Keswick, Albermarle county, says: "Miss Sally Stuart, of Alexandria, who represented the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Virginia at the recent triennial convention of the Episcopal church at Minneapolis, Minn., has returned, and Sunday afternoon gave an intensely interesting address before the Woman's Auxiliary meeting at Grace church chapel, Bowlesville, which was presided over by its president, Mrs. Colonel Alfred L. Rives, of "Castle Hill."

Mr. H. C. Wallace, formerly of this city, suffered a stroke of paralysis at his home in Washington Wednesday. Mr. G. Fred. Williams, who for the past three months has been acting as an assistant at the First National Bank, has returned to Kenyon College to complete his theological studies.

CRIES OF MURDER.—About four o'clock this morning Mr. Raymond Smith heard cries of murder on north Royal street, near Princess, and proceeding thither be found a white woman named Maggie Lyle prostrate in the street, very drunk and with her head and face bleeding. She was too much under the influence of liquor to talk coherently and Mr. Smith notified Officers Sherwood and Hall and they put the woman under arrest. This morning she presented an abject ap pearance in the dock. Her face and head bore the marks of assault or injuries she received in falling. She was fined $2.50. The woman, it seems, in company with Carrie Travers went to Cot. Nelson's saloon about eleven o'elock last night, and she claims that while there the Travers woman and Nelson threw her into the street. She swore out a warrant for the arrest of

THE PRESIDENT PASSES THROUGH. President Cleveland and party returned to Washington last night from the Atlanta Exposition. The President received a cordial reception in the several cities along the route. At Lynch-bury a large crowd greeted him and he shook hands with many persons. Gen. Fitzhugh Lee was one of the first, and was invited to a place on the platform of the car, which was filled with the Cabinet officers. At Danville, Charlottesville and other places the president of the car dent was greeted by large crowds. When the President passed through this city about 7:45 o'clock not over 50 persons were at the Midland depot. None of the President's party showed themselves and there was no demou-

SUDDEN DEATH.—Captain Joshua Ellis, a well-known resident of this city, died suddenly at his home in Fairfax county, early last night. Mr. Ellis was sitting in his house listening to his wife read a newspaper. The latter had finish read a newspaper. The latter had finish ed reading an account of the suicide of some man and had paused. Mr. Ellis remarked to his wife that he saw no of the lodge had been completed all that institution and the Blue and Buffs of Washington School of this city. The game was a tie, the score being 6 to 6 the lodge had been completed all the executive committee of the good reason for people committing sui-cide, as the human race were dyirg fast enough. He had barely gotten the words out of his mouth when he fell over and expired, it is supposed, from heart disease. Captain Ellis was mas-ter of the Alexandria tug Eva Belle Cain. He was about sixty years old The deceased was at one time a prominent Red Man and Rechabite.

with drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50.

Maggie Lyle, arrested by Officers Sherwood and Hall charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was Several persons charged with keeping unlicensed dogs, were fined $1 each. Night Report.—Last night was partly cloudy. One prisoner and five lodg-ers were at the station house.

THE REVIVAL.-The revival services in progress at the Baptist Church were attended last night by the usual large crowd. Evangelist Neighbor delivered one of the finest sermons every heard in this city, and he was listened to with close attention by all present. A large number asked the prayers of the church! several went forward and five made application for membership. Four, who had been before the deacons, were re-ceived for baptism. To-night at 6:45 a grand rally of the Baptist Young People's Union will be held and to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock there will be a meeting for children.

MUSICAL AND LITERARY ENTERTAIN-MENT.—Mechanics Lodge, No. 3, K. of P., held its regular weekly meeting at its hall on north Pitt street, last night. Nor THE MAN.-James Clark, a white man, was arrested yesterday afternoon and locked up on the charge of stealing a bucket of candy from a car on the Southern Railway. An employee of the company who saw the that country, delivered an interesting thief make off with the candy and who was unable to overtake him, appeared at the station house and exonorated Clark by testifying that he did not answer to the description of the rogue.

a car in the W. & O. yard in this city was broken open and robbed of several boxes of tobacco, The tobacco had been consigned to Messrs. J. Broders & Co., and was a new brand which the firm desired to put on the market. Lieutenant Smith, when informed of the theft, set to work to run down the thief or thieves, and yesterday he had reason to believe the tobacco had been taken to one of the "Petersburg" saloons. He procured a search warrant ard entered Richard Murphy's saloou, on the northeast corner of Princess and Pitt streets, and found fifteen or twenty pounds of the stolen tobacco on sale. The lieutenant asked Murphy where he bought the goods, and the latter told him from Broders & Co. The latter upon being interrogated emphatically denied having sold the tobacco, and supplemented the assertion by saying they had never seen the brand alluded to, the supply they had ordered never having the brand their store. The limited in the supply they had ordered never having the store of the supplemental their store.

reached their store. The lieutenant seized the tobacco (which had, con-trary to the revenue laws, been taken from the original box and exposed for sale) and arrested Murphy. The latter then made another statement, this time saying he purchased the goods from a man with a big moustache, that be believed at the time it was stolen, that he intended to throw it away, &c. The examination of the case is set for seven o'clock to-night. Murphy was released on bail, Mr. Geo. W. Fisher and Mr.Robert Murphy becoming his bondsmen in the sum of $250 for his appearance. The railroad companies complain of the annoyance they experience at the hands of a band of thieves who infest this city and neighborhood. Last summer, it is claimed, whisky was stolen by the barrel from cars and sold in quantities by the thieves to saloons in the "Petersburg" neighborhood. Union Mission.—The meeting at the Union Mission last night was well attended and very interesting. Several persons started to lead a better life. The meeting to-night will be conducted by Rev. A. G. Harrison, of Washington. Mr. Harrison has spoken at the tent meetings several times during the summer. He is a native of Sweeden and has spent most of his life on the high seas, and the story of his life is very interesting to hear. Services begin at 7:30 o'clock. All are welcome.

CHURCH SOCIABLE.—The Society of Christian Endeavor of the Methodist Protestant Church held the second of their social evenings at the residence of Rev. Frank T. Benson, the pastor of the church, on north Columbus street last night. There was a large attenpleasantly spent. An interesting programme was rendered consisting of songs, recitations, games, &c.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mr. J. W. Kell was to-day appointed by City Engineer Dunn Overseer of the Chain Gang.

The Occoquan steamer Palermo and the sloop Woodford are on the ways at the shipyard for repairs. It is said that but few of those who are fined for keeping dogs without li-censes ever take out such licenses. Three brothers of this city yesterday celebrated their birthdays. They were born on the 24th of October biennially.

A marriage license was issued in A. Branson. Mrs. Egbert A. Thompson died at her residence, Holland Hall, Fairfax county, last night. The deceased had been ill for some time. Burning of brush last night in Mary land, just opposite this city, caused a great many people to think that a dwelling house was burning. Captain Wm. Ragan, formerly of this city, dropped dead in Washington this

Grand Lodge of Good Templars has been called by the grand chief templar to meet in Charlottesville next Tuesday, to consider the lecture work of the order in the State and other important matters. The registrars in the various wards will be at the voting places all day tomorrow to register such persons as have not yet been registered and desire to vote in the November election. This will be last day for registration before the election.

Mr. A. Leslie, who a few years since made some repairs to the Market House steeple, has been engaged to make further repairs to the steeple. He will arrange the vane and the letters and tighten the bolts which hold the gilt balls in place, &c. Coleman, the colored candidate for the Legislature, will speak again to-night at the corner of King and Washington streets, and says he wants to meet Mr. Lewis, another candidate, at the Opera House. Coleman has now ceased to be funny. Rev. F. T. Benson will commence a series of revival services at the Metho dist Protestant Church Sunday week. On that day there will be a rally meeting of the members of the congregation. Rev. Dr. Sutherland, who was pastor of that church years ago, will be present and deliver a sermon.

A resident of Washington, who is extensively engaged in the cotton business, and who recently attended the Union Mission services in this city, told the managers that when the price of cotton reached nine cents he would give them $2,000 to assist in erecting a building here. As the price reached this figure some time since the managers expect to get the money.

If the present programme does not miscarry it is more than probable that within a few weeks a large delegation representing the indigent colored population of Washington will have signed their names, or affixed their "cross-marks" to a paper now in circulation, which means a sea trip to Liberia, otherwise known as the "Black Republic," which is situated on the western coast of Africa,

Mr. M. Schuler will have for sale at his stand in the market and at his store on upper King street to-morrow a full morning. He was the father of Mr. supply of home made sausage, corned hams, corned pork, &c.

The wholesale trading in Flour during the week has been remarkably quiet, prices, however have been pretty generally maintained. The orders from interior points have in-reased. In several cases millers have been buying, though they have their mil's full of Wheat. They have no water to enable them to use their machinery for grinding Flour. They can scarcely grind Corn for local con-sumption. One miller in Londoun county sumption. One miller in London county wrote a merchant in this city yesterday, who had ordered a certain grade of Flour from him, that he regretted not being able to furnish it. His mill had been idle for three months. His mill race was as dry as King street. Wheat continues firm considering the fact that the mills, which usually draw their supply from this market are standing still.

fact that the mills, which usually draw their supply from this market, are standing still Prime Wheat would sell readily at outside figures. There is also a good demand for the lower grades of Wheat, this is used principally for feeding purposes: Corn continues in light receipt; old Corn is selling at fair prices, new, which is green, is not in much demand. Oats are in light receipt and wholesale prices are a fraction lower; the receipts are from the West, and it is rather remarkable that that section of the country should be able to sell at such low prices. At prevailing prices in Alexandria to-day, our near by producers would lose money. There is no change to report in Rye; our distillers have not yet started up. They must have distilled largely last fall to have enabled them to have kept their distilleries idle so late now. Bye is really selling to-day below the cost of producand grassers.
